NO MORE HOPPLES ON PACING HORSES

New York, February 9.—Beginning with the season of 1915, no hopples shall be used on pacing horses, and up to that time the device is to be gradually eliminated. This decision was adopted by the twenty-fifth congress of the National Trotting Association to-day.

"Hopples," says a new rule, "shall not be used in races or performances against time on two-year-olds or under in 1915; on three-year-olds or under in 1916; on four-year-olds or under in 1917; on five-year-olds or under in 1918; on six-year-olds or under in 1919; after which time hopples shall be barred."

Section 1, of rule 4, was amended to read:

RACING ASSOCIATION INDICTED

Cincinnati, O., February 9.—An indictment was returned by the grand jury of Kenton county, Ky., to-day against the Latonia Racing Association on the charge of holding races without a license from the Kentucky State Racing Commission.

The Latonia race track is in Kenton county, and held a race meeting last fall in defiance of orders from the racing commission. The commission had ordered that no racing could be held unless book-making was abolished, and the pari-mutuel system of betting used. The race track managers, however, installed bookmakers.

ELEVEN RIDERS
FOLLOW HOUNDS

Tomahawk Club Members Enjoy Fine Run Over Good Course.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Orange, Va., February 9.—A field of eleven riders met the master of the Tomahawk Club on Tuesday. Owing to the inclement weather, there had been no run for two weeks, and both riders and spectators were glad to get the gallop. The footing was good, in spite of the snow and cold weather of the past two weeks, and most of the jumps were taken in splendid style.

The run was about four and a half miles long, over splendid hunting country, such as only Piedmont Virginia furnishes, with rail and plank fences, and with here and there a creek to furnish diversity to the hunt.

Only one rider came to grief. Stuart Robinson was shaken from his saddle at one of the fences, but continued to follow the hounds for 100 yards, clinging to the neck of his hunter, till he was safely deposited on his back in the midst of a freshly ploughed field.

Miss Hilda Holloway, of New York, and Mrs. W. W. Osborne showed that in this kind of sport they were not to be outdone. Their riding was brilliant and spectacular.

After the hunt an elegant hunt breakfast was served at the house of H. O. Lyne, president of the club.

Those riding were: Wallace Sandford, M. F. H. on the Roman; V. R. Shackelford and Dr. E. G. Scott, whips; and four riders on Gray Squirrels; Mrs. W. W. Osborne, on Lady Lightfoot; W. S. Grimes, on Lady Gray; W. W. Osborne, on Sunbeam; August Wamerssee, on Lady Anne; Stuart Robinson, on Staunton; on Northwood; H. O. Lyne, on Commodore; and Mr. Goodloe, on Ketchup.

TRAVIS LOSES TO GARDNER.

Feature of Qualification Round of St. Valentine's Golf Contest.
Pinehurst, N. C., February 9.—One hundred and four players drove off from the first tee in to-day's qualification round of the sixth annual St. Valentine's golf tournament, a record field for this contest.

The feature of the day was the defeat of Walter J. Travis, of Garden City, by J. P. Gardner, of Middletown, in the race for the qualification gold medal, in which the Chicago player scored 77 against 81 for his distinguished opponent. The card:

Mr. Travis—Out, 5, 6, 3, 4, 5, 2, 7, 3, 4; In, 4, 3, 1, 2, 4, 5, 3, 2, 7, 3, 4; Total, 255.
Mr. Gardner—Out, 5, 6, 3, 4, 5, 2, 7, 3, 4; In, 4, 3, 1, 2, 4, 5, 3, 2, 7, 3, 4; Total, 255.

Woodland, in St. I. S. Robinson, of Oak Hills, and H. W. Perrin, of Merion Cricket Club, tied for fourth position in 85.

A tie at 91 marked the limit of admission to the president's cup division.

AMUSEMENTS.

Among those who will enjoy the fine "Dole South" program to be given at the Academy of Music this evening by Polk Miller, of Richmond, and Colonel Tom Booker, of Amelia, assisted by the famous negro quartet, will be a hundred or more veterans from the Soldiers' Home.

The two genial Confederates will then appear in gray coats reminiscent of war-time days, and it seemed appropriate that the old men should be there to help them fight the battles over. An invitation extended by the management was promptly accepted, and a full delegation from the home is preparing to turn out.

The plan adopted by the Radcliffe Bureau of introducing prominent lecturers by way of varying its musical and comedienne program has proved one of the most popular features of the excellent concert series now being presented in this city. The high standard set by the distinguished speakers who have preceded him will suffer nothing at the hands of Spelman Riggs, who will appear at the Academy on Friday evening.

A humorous entertainer, Mr. Riggs has enjoyed unusual success on the lecture circuits, and in his own cities he has been a "house name" who will greet him here. Musician, poet, humorist, scholar and character, he will produce a program of songs, stories, and a full delegation from the home is preparing to turn out.

With banjo, song and story, Polk Miller, assisted by his comrades-in-arms and lifelong friend, Colonel Tom Booker, of Amelia, and two Confederate veterans famous as entertainers—will give Richmond people a glimpse of the old South in a concert arranged for to-night at the Academy of Music.

It is a melancholy thought, revived by the annual reunion of the "boys in gray," that a few more years will see the last of the already thin line of those who knew and lived in Dixie before the close of the Civil War. They will be left to tell of the things that were except the books. To an entertainer, however, there is an entertainment.

BAR ASSOCIATIONS TO MEET JOINTLY

Maryland and Virginia Lawyers to Assemble at Hot Springs in July.

Presidents and executive committees of the Virginia State Bar Association and of the Maryland State Bar Association have determined to hold a joint meeting at Hot Springs in the last week of July. Both associations will unite in inviting some distinguished speaker, not a resident of either State, and in addition, each association will have two speakers, besides their respective presidents or from its own membership.

All meetings at which papers are to be read or papers delivered will be joint, but each association will hold two sessions for the transaction of business.

The banquet will be a joint affair and will be presided over by a toastmaster selected by the presidents of the respective associations.

Special hotel and railroad rates have been secured, and the joint meeting promises to be a great success from every standpoint.

ment by such a man as Polk Miller, a typical Southern "old school" entertainer, means something more than merely an evening's amusement. Between the jokes and funny stories will creep a more serious thought. It may mean to many the last chance they will have of seeing the ante-bellum South through the eyes of those who have not simply read and heard of it, but who have lived its life and shared its sorrows and joys.

Mr. Miller has absolutely no rival in the delineation of the character of the ante-bellum South, and his songs and stories have delighted thousands of people even in the latest cities of the North. Assisted by Colonel Booker, he presents a program distinctly unique and wholly enjoyable. The two old Confederates, as they style themselves, may not make another "tour," and there is every indication on the part of the people of Richmond not to fail to take advantage of an opportunity that, a few years from now, may be forever beyond their reach.

BLUES PLANNING BIG CELEBRATION

Many Military Organizations to Be Here at Dedication of New Armory.

Preparations are already under way for the opening of the Blues' Armory and the entertainment of the many visiting military companies who have been invited for the annual celebration on May 10. Major E. W. Bowles has appointed committees to make all the arrangements, and a meeting of the officers to outline the plans was held yesterday at the armory on Main Street.

The Connecticut Foot Guard Company, of Hartford and New Haven, and the Providence, R. I. Infantry Company, the Washington Grays and the Infantry company of Fayetteville, N. C., are expected, and last, but not least, among the visitors will be the Ancient and Honorable Artillery, of Boston, one of the oldest military organizations in the country. In all the Blues will entertain about 500 men, and a committee is now at work canvassing the friends of the Blues for funds with which to pay for the expenses of the entertainment.

Though the program is now only in tentative form, there will be two banquets and a grand ball, which will probably be held in the Horse Show Building. The visitors will be here in large numbers, arriving on the morning of May 9.

In view of the lavish entertainment afforded the Blues on their New England trip three years ago, especially by the Ancient and Honorable Artillery and by the Connecticut Foot Guard, it is expected that the Blues will show the visitors as much courtesy during the short time they will be here as was shown them while they were in Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island.

The City Council of New Haven appropriated a fund of $10,000 for the decoration of the city and for other expenses of the trip, and the Blues' memorable trip, and a hotel was especially chartered for their comfort. Like courtesies, though not so extensive, were experienced elsewhere, and the Blues are preparing to show that Virginia hospitality shall not be outdone by that which has been extended to them in the North.

CIRCUIT COURT BREAKS RECORD

Thirty-one Prisoners Indicted, Tried and Convicted in One Day.

Sentences aggregating 155 years were given in the City Circuit Court yesterday. The "Black Maria" from the Penitentiary was kept busy hauling convicts to and from the prison, and the end is not yet.

Under State law the Circuit Court of the city of Richmond is especially designated to try cases originating in the State Penitentiary, which, although in the city limits, is properly reserved by the State. All of the convicts tried yesterday were up for the offense of having been twice before convicted in some criminal court of Commonwealth. For the law provides that when one has made a trip to the Penitentiary and gotten out after serving a term, if that person again falls from grace and is so indiscreet as to justify a jury in sending him back again, five years is to be added to his term.

Twenty-one prisoners were up yesterday, indicted by a special grand jury, tried by the court, and convicted and sentenced, all in the course of one short day, each to serve five years at the end of the present term. For each of the accused came from the Penitentiary, and to that place each one returned.

Some of the accused denied that it was their second term, but it didn't go with Judge Scott. Old-time guards who know the ear-marks of every man who has ever made shoes for the State, and incidentally for the Davis Boot and Shoe Company, were there with prompt identification. Twenty-five cases are yet to be heard. Since the records are clear in all cases before their formal presentation to the court, it may be presumed that a total term of 125 years will be added to-morrow. Among those who got their yesterday were two women—Josephine Jones and Julia Andrews. The others were: Newton Demore, Richard Rimbell, Albert Rimbell, Thomas Vance, Emanuel Hutchison, William W. Jense, Scott, Jerry Wilson, William A. Kiss, Frank Clark, Ellis Harris, James Eccles, Ralph Elsey, William Snyder, Lee Whitaker, John Henry Smith, Henry Shepperson, Monroe Reynolds, Sanford Lyons, Charles Still, Berkeley Courtney, Isaac Page, John Henry Jones, George Potter, Benjamin Easton, Charles Williams, Charles Smith, John Jones and Ellis Barney.

Qualifications in Chancery.
Langhorne Putney qualified yesterday in the Chancery Court as executor of the estate of Archibald P. Cook, superintendent of the Southern Railway, who was killed in a wreck at Reddy Creek, N. C., some time ago. The estate is valued at $40,000.

Cordeia Jeffrey qualified as administrator of the will of N. H. Jeffrey, and Louise Maffey Shead as executrix of the estate of Winston Clark Mallory. The estates are small.

Inspector Is Dismissed.
Washington, D. C., February 9.—E. B. Holman, immigrant inspector, in charge at Galveston, Tex., will be dismissed for the good of the service, according to a ruling made by Secretary Nagel to-day. Various charges were made against him, and his dismissal was recommended by Commissioner-General Knapp.

Railway Peace Pact Signed.
Mexico City, February 9.—All differences between producers and engineers of the National Railways of Mexico and the management were settled this afternoon, the peace pact being signed at 2:30 o'clock. Both the railway officials and the employees state they are satisfied with the agreement reached, the terms of which they refuse to divulge.
